

I told you time after time that managing your time wisely saves time in the end.

Apple is looking at buying United Kingdom startup for $1 billion.

The last wizard of the century.

Some affordance is perceivable, others are not.

You don't know what you don't know, and that's how you know you still have more to learn.

If you run fast enough you can run away from the fear that makes you afraid to run at all.

To make this work you have to work harder than anyone else who says they work as much as you.

You see what you want to see, not what others see, and that's why perception changes everything.
